

DC CONFERENCE & ASSOCIATION MANAGEMENT

Conference and Association Management Specialists

Since inception over 30 years ago, DC Conference & Association Management has specialised in managing hundreds of national and international conferences in the medical, scientific and not-for-profit sector. We are specialists in this area.

DCC&A also offers professional association management for the same sector, either in conjunction or independently of the conference management service.

DCC&A sees value and fulfilment in managing “conferences and associations with meaning”; those that have real purpose and can contribute a worthy legacy.

Our staff are experienced professionals who delight in being able to take the load off committees who already have heavy commitments and limited time.

We work hand in hand with you to bring about your desired outcome, taking on the workload and allowing you to focus on the big picture.
